

Season Seventeen Programme

Bohemian Rhapsody

Friday 13th September 2019, 7.30 pm

Drama/biog: Queen - brilliant songs and genius showmanship made them one of the greatest bands of all time. This is the story of their dizzying rise to world fame, and the fortunes of their lead singer, the mesmerising Freddie Mercury. His shock departure from the group was followed by dark times in the wilderness with a hard living Mercury unable to capture success as a solo performer. And then reunion. At the Live Aid Concert in 1985, Mercury makes his triumphant return to the stage for Queen's greatest ever performance. Cert. 12A – 134 mins

Sisters Brothers

Friday 4th October 2019, 7.30 pm

Drama/crime: It's the Wild West, it's 1851 and two brothers have been given a job to do. The Sisters boys are bounty hunters, travelling to California, and their target is a chemist who has discovered the secret of finding gold. Yes, it's a western with all the gun fights and fist fights you would expect, but it's also a genuinely funny and moving account of the relationship between two brothers and their attempts to come to terms with a fast changing world. Look out for their first encounter with a toothbrush. Cert. 15 – 124 mins

Maudie Friday 1st November 2019, 7.30 pm

Drama/romance: "There's me. There's the dogs. There's the chickens and then there's you," says Everett to his housekeeper, Maudie. Betrayed by her family and isolated from the world, Maudie takes refuge in painting. What starts as a consolation becomes a successful business. Beautifully filmed in coastal Canada, this true story follows the relationship between Everett and Maudie as her confidence and talent blossom. Cert.12 -113 mins

Kind Hearts and Coronets Friday 29th November 2019, 7.30 pm

Classic/Comedy/Drama. Alec Guinness demonstrates his versatility playing all eight members of his aristocratic family - a family that is standing between him and a fortune. He hatches evil schemes to get rid of these obstacles. This classic film is a sparkling satire on the class system pitting the dying upper class against the mercenary middle class. Very funny - 70th anniversary restoration! PG- 104 mins

Shoplifters Friday 10th January 2019, 7.30 pm

Arthouse/international: We are in Tokyo, not glamorous wealthy Tokyo but a city of desperate people struggling with poverty and the threat of destitution. The shoplifters of the title are a large Fagin type family, minor crooks, surviving precariously on the margins. Then one day they take a little girl. Is it abduction or rescue? This is a compelling and moving film about flawed characters in a hard world. It was the 2018 winner of the Palme d'Or in Cannes. Cert 15 – 121 mins

Yesterday Friday 14th February 2019, 7.30 pm

Comedy/fantasy/music: Imagine there's a world without the Beatles. Perfect for Valentine's day, this romantic comedy follows an unsuccessful songwriter whose life changes when a freak global accident leaves him as the only person who remembers the fab four. With a little help from his childhood friend, Ellie, Jack "borrows" the songs and begins his route to stardom. Cert 12A - 116 mins

Leave No Trace
Friday 13th March 2019, 7.30 pm

Drama: Deep in the Oregon woods live a man and his daughter. Will is a Vietnam veteran, his daughter, Tom is 13, and their contact with the world is limited to occasional forays into the local town to sell Will's army medication and buy essential supplies. When their secret existence is discovered by the authorities, we follow Will and Tom's journey to find a new home – an adventure that is intertwined with the growing realisation that happiness does not necessarily mean the same thing for father and daughter. Cert 12- 106 mins

Red Joan
Friday 17th April 2019, 7.30 pm

Drama: Judi Dench plays the elderly Joan whose tranquil life in an English village is brought to a shattering stop with her arrest by Special Branch. Joan is charged with passing secrets to the Soviets, hastening the Communists' production of the nuclear bomb. Through her interrogation we are taken back in time to 1930s Cambridge. What happened to the young Joan? Why did she commit treason? This film is based on the true story of the spy, Melita Norwood. Cert 12A – 99 mins

Can You Ever Forgive Me?
Friday 15th May 2019, 7.30 pm

Drama: Meet Lee Israel: author, alcoholic and cat lover. Lee is a writer whose star has fallen fast. She needs to rebuild her reputation and boost her finances and she has a plan. Helped by Jack, her partner in drink, Lee forges and sells letters by dead celebrities. You might not like her, but it is doubtful she would care. She is interesting, lonely, and intelligent, with a compelling story to tell.
Cert 15 – 104 mins
